Archdiocesan Investigation of Documents accepted and validated

By Sr. Annette Beecham, OSP

The following is a summary and update on the status of documents sent to Rome.

The documentation representing the Diocesan investigation was submitted and the Cause for Mother Lange was officially opened. The Copia Publica was prepared by the clerk of the Congregation [of the Saints] based on the submitted documentation. The documentation was accepted and the decree of validity of the Diocesan investigation was given.

The request to appoint the relatore (the Congregation for the Causes of Saints clerk serving as a director while the Positio on the life and heroic virtues is being written) has been approved. A Monsignor Gutierrez will serve as our relatore. Father Spiewak met with him and they decided the Positio will be prepared and presented in English.

Our Postulator, Father Spiewak, requested that the miracle or miracles we have be sent to him.

Editor's note: Sister Annette Beecham, OSP, Superior General, returned from Rome in May, 2006.

Mother Lange Leads the Challenge:

Uncommon Faithfulness!

Discovery made through a pilgrimage

By Toni Moore Duggan

As our National Board of Directors continues a new season, we will continually reflect on the Strategic Planning retreat of last season. We remain steadfast in promoting the charism of Mother Lange and her daughters, the Oblate Sisters of Providence. An immigrant woman of color who said yes to God when all the cultural differences said otherwise offers us a proven way to help others: that is to walk her walk in the form of a pilgrimage. This sacred odyssey offers an opportunity to nurture our history with spiritual regeneration. This great woman and her daughters chose the pearl of great price relying solely on the Providence of God. This uncommon faithfulness is her legacy. Her trust in what is not seen is the faith that so many souls living in quiet desperation need today. Her tolerance and dignity will forever serve as models for healing the frequent transgressions that have penetrated the lives of so many in our day.

A pilgrimage is an opportunity to walk where she walked, kneel where she knelt and pray where she prayed. This is an opportunity to risk equating your feelings and experience with the energy and the light that guided and fortified these consecrated women of color.

The Mother Lange Pilgrimage takes you to the Oblates' Motherhouse which serves as a self contained historical journey in and of itself. You will enter the convent and sacred space where Mother Mary Lange laid her head for eternal rest and surrendered her spirit to God. You will experience the vibrant energy that permeates the walls of St. Frances Academy then and now. There is a layer of primordial grace that is experienced in the space of Chapelle Basse where so many consecrated lives were fortified for the journey of saying yes to God in very special and individual ways. These portals of sacred history offer healing, illumination and opportunity to explore the call to the kingdom in the life of each pilgrim who chooses to walk this sacred path. Join us. Walk this sacred path and be open to the grace of spiritual regeneration.

For more information on planning a pilgrimage call the Guild office at 410-242-6861.

Everyone Loves a "Ball"

Did you decide to simply kick off your shoes, put your feet up and enjoy a good book? Or, maybe you enjoyed a bit of quality time with the family? Either way, the Mother Lange Guild's "Stay at Home Ball" continues in high swing.

To borrow from commercial advertising on how much you "save" when buying in quantity, the "Ball" offered outstanding savings in several areas: parking, dressing, time, and even foregoing a less than exciting menu.

On the other hand, you were offered the opportunity to share through monetary effort the on-going activities promoting the cause for canonization of Mother Mary Lange and its related activities. You also, in one way or another, followed the admonition of St. James 2: 14 – 18. Intentions were placed on the altar at Thanksgiving. Contributors will be listed in the August, 2007 edition of The Lange Letter.

OOPS!! Sister Carmen Deschappelles, OSP's name was inadvertently omitted from the 2005 thank you listing of "Ball" donations. Sorry.

Educational Assist

I've been praying to Mother Lange each morning for a young woman, the first in her family to attend college. First semester she got 3 A's and a B. Thank you, Mother Lange. G.B.; IL

Financial Footage

I thank Mother Lange for financial aid received while out of work after disabling foot surgery. A.C.; MD

Welcome, Refugee

God be praised! I got my United States asylum through the intercession of Mother Mary Lange on Monday, 9/11/2006. Several years ago, I arrived in this country, my life threatened, from an African nation in turmoil. I found a leaflet with Mother Lange's story and prayer at the first African Eucharistic Congress. Soon after I met an Oblate Sister, so I was led to pray for Mother Lange's aid. At my next visit to Immigration Court, after 4 years of seeking asylum, it was granted to me only 20 minutes later! Thank you, Mother Lange! F.R.M.; MD

Seeing after Believing

I had an aneurysm in my left brain. Instant death if it burst! The doctors had a procedure to repair it, but it was very delicate and risky with possible complications. I prayed for guidance, faithfully said the Mother Lange prayer, deciding to put my life in God's hands and go through the surgery. Before the anesthetist began, I asked to have a minute to pray: "I love you, God. Jesus and Holy Spirit, ... my Lady in blue, I love you." Then, about to fall asleep, I saw Mother Lange!!! She reassured me, "Rest, my dear, you will be all right." I woke up from a successful surgery, with so much gratitude to God, Blessed Mother, and Mother Mary Lange! I continue to ask for full recovery.

Haitian Writing Contest

An On-Line Interview with Father Parick Aris

Father Patrick Aris is the director of the Office for Haitian Affairs in Washington, DC. The interviewer is Sister Virginie Fish, director of the M. L. Guild for the canonization of Mother Mary Lange.

The Mother Mary Lange Guild enjoys a supportive satellite group known as the HAU Chapter (Haitian Americans United for Mother Lange). Members gather from Washington, Baltimore and Virginia in solidarity of their Haitian heritage and give of their time, skills and means to support the cause for canonization of Mother Mary Lange.

This summer the general Haitian community, under the direction of Father Aris held their Fifth Annual Writing Contest. Sister Virginie "caught up" with Father to get more information.

Sister Virginie: Father, what is the purpose of the Writing Contest?

Father Aris: The Haitian Writing Contest is an independent educational activity sponsored by the Mission Notre Dame du Perpetuel Secours

(MNDPS). It was established for the first time by Father Andre Pierre to help the young of our community have a strong knowledge about Mother Lange and to keep them busy during vacation time.

Sister Virginie: Are other educational activities offered?

Father Aris: The Haitian community sponsors a summer academic program for youth. Our goals are to continue to improve the knowledge of the young about Mother Lange; other experiences offered are to visit a black museum, choose a role model among black celebrities and heroes, and write a prayer asking, through Mother Lange's intercession, the end of world hunger, help for orphans, war victims, soldiers, Haiti, etc.

Sister Virginie: Why is this activity so important?

Father Aris: It is important that Haitian youth maintain the literacy and culture of their heritage. It is an open door to the whole Haitian community and a way to promote the Cause of Mother Lange.
